Cactus Flower Café is opening where Angi's Bistro use to be – next to Island Style. This is in addition to Guglielmo's which will be located where Paisano's was.

I'm glad to here that new businesses are moving into those locations. I had high hopes that the previous restaurants would be a lasting part of our community and I have the same hopes for these new businesses and plan on doing my best to support them.

I moved here(Navarre)from Pensacola around 1987,I have seen this area grow more than I had expected,but it is becoming more of a place where I 'hope' my children will want to remain.

Having lived here all of their lives they do have a sense of pride about about their hometown.

That's great to hear. And let's not forget the new Mexican Rest - El Padron, where DeVinci's used to be.

Also - I've tried the new Chinese Rest (formerly Dino's) and it's was REALLY GOOD. Has anyone else?

I wish all of these restaurants the best of luck.

With quality food, good service, and reasonable pricing - I cannot imagine why they won't be.

Cactus Flower Cafe? Would this be the same people as Pensacola's restaurant by the same name? I sure hope so!!!!!

YUMMY!
